

POLICE OFFICER

(Competitive Class)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS

This is the beginning level of work in the police department involving training and routine patrol work in the protection and safeguarding of life and property. Employees of this class are responsible for the enforcement of state and municipal laws, regulations, and ordinances. New employees usually work in company with and receive assistance from a more experienced employee. Work involves making regular patrols and investigating accidents, crimes, or suspicious activity in accordance with prescribed departmental rules and regulations and desk work assisting with clerical dispatcher duties. Employees are usually given a special training course in police methods and the use of police equipment prior to duty assignments. Employees of this class must use independent judgment when faced with emergency situations. Work is checked by a superior officer through inspection and observation.
